| TOPIC | SUMMARY | ACTION |
|---|--|---------------------------------|
| Lightning Round | Bill Messenger updated us on the economic effect in Hanford. With an unfortunate layoff reaching the 5,000 mark. NEG will be sent out for the (Umatilla Army Depot) area to get into the Workforce Development. Those affected were in the electricians, sub-contractors with the Governor's Office, government workers, and scientist. The NEG is a workforce used to make transitions, aiding in the search for supplemental training. Terri Tilton will be providing an update from her meeting with the Governor on Building Trades, targeting this years boomers. | |
| Evergreen Jobs Leadership Team Semiannual Report and Review of Clean Energy Leadership Council Recommendations | Martin McCallum provided an update on SESP Grantee completers and job achievement: Renton Technical College – Building Engineer Tech program, and Spokane Technical College – Residential Energy Tech program. Also reporting that there has been slow recruitment and start up for the BIS program. A request from Bryan Wilson to monitor media follow up on tracking Job Placement with knowledge that D.O.L is tracking their job placement and currently the 1st and 2nd Quarter Sub-recipients and grantees will track their job placement as well. D.O.L has come out with $500 million representing RFP's for 4 to 5 Community and Technical Colleges who are working on proposals. There may be another round for Green Jobs. Recommendations for CELC are as follows: 1. Push for Legislative support, 2. Governor has accepted it with a 5.2 million endorsement (part of last years budget) – do we want to endorse? 3. Is there any leadership buy in? | Point of Contact: Dixie Simmons |

Topic recommendations are as follows:

1. Provide latest update on real on demand jobs, 2. What on the job training is gaining placement – create guide for future trainings, 3. How much flexibility is there within these training areas – do Project Managers know?

Recommend to create a small Steering Committee for the development of the Forum.
