

WA Health Care Worker Training Coalition Tagline Requirements

All publications and products created for Health Care Worker Training Coalition projects are required to include the following taglines:

- Publications (i.e. statements, press releases, request for proposals, bid solicitations and other documents describing projects)

“Brought to you by a grant funded by the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act through the U.S. Department of Labor, this is a project of the WA Health Care Worker Training Coalition led by the Workforce Training and Education Coordinating Board. Two thirds of the funding, or some 66 percent, comes from the U.S. Department of Labor through a $5 million grant.

[Insert name of organization] is an equal opportunity employer and provider of employment and training services. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to persons with disabilities.”

- Products (i.e. curricula, training models, technical assistance products, and any related materials)

“This workforce solution was funded by a grant awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor’s Employment and Training Administration. The solution was created by the grantee and does not necessarily reflect the official position of the U.S. Department of Labor. The Department of Labor makes no guarantees, warranties, or assurances of any kind, express or implied, with respect to such information, including any information on linked sites and including, but not limited to, accuracy of the information or its completeness, timeliness, usefulness, adequacy, continued availability, or ownership. This solution is copyrighted by the institution that created it. Internal use by an organization and/or personal use by an individual for non-commercial purposes is permissible. All other uses require the prior authorization of the copyright owner.”

**Please note that taglines should be in a font no smaller than size 8 (you need to be able to read the tagline).*
