

Career Bridge: Finding Consumer Information.

Whether you're just starting out or searching for your next career, Career Bridge brings together valuable career planning information in a single web site. You can: view careers and employment demand by region, learn how much you'll earn, and find education programs needed for a new career. Plus, you'll discover performance results for each program--from graduation rates to job placement to pay--before you make your move.

Here's what Career Bridge helps you do:

- Discover your job or career interests
- Determine how much a career pays and whether it's in demand
- Identify what you need to learn to move forward
- Find programs statewide that deliver the education and training you need
- Track how successful those programs are in delivering results

Career Bridge also provides financial aid information to help you pay for your education, and links directly to sites so you can register online and get started on your next career move right away.

Are you a job counselor? Career Bridge is your new home for the Eligible Training Provider list, detailing every program that qualifies for federal and state funding.

No matter where you want to go in your career, Career Bridge will help you get there. It's the only Washington state web site that can tell you how well education and training programs have performed...before you invest your time and money.

Be a smart consumer when planning your next career move. Go to:

www.CareerBridge.wa.gov