

Higher Earning Power More Opportunities Meaningful Careers

If You Want More...Then LiLA Is For You!

Washington State LiLA:

- Is a new employee benefits program.
- Is an employee savings account used for your training and education.
- Pays for tuition, books, supplies and more!
- Gives you the opportunity to learn new skills!

Here's How LiLAs Work for You!

- Your employer matches dollar for dollar what you contribute to your Lifelong Learning Account (LiLA) up to a predetermined dollar amount. The result? More money to use for your training and education.
- Qualify by meeting your employer benefit requirements.
- Complete your personal career development plan online, by phone, or in person to map your pathway to future career goals.
- Choose career advancing courses, seminars, or workshops.

Start Your LiLA Now! It's Easy!

1. Enroll. Once your employer has registered, enroll online at www.lila.wa.gov to open the door to lifelong learning. You'll be given your own secure personal web portfolio.
2. Save. Make regular contributions to your LiLA account and your employer will match them. A minimum of $20 per month is all that is required.
3. Plan. Create a personal career development plan (CDP) that outlines your learning choices.
4. Learn. Attend the courses or workshops you've chosen. Use your LiLA account to pay for classes and required supplies.
5. Grow. Apply what you learned in class directly to your job. Wondering what's in it for your employer? A happier, more productive you!
